Sociology, Social Work and Criminology

Chair and Associate Professor: Hearn
Graduate Director, MA in Sociology and Associate Professor: Running
Professor: Hoskin
Associate Professors: Kim, Running, Thomas, Williams
Assistant Professors: Burnham, Caputo-Levine, Hageman, Giesler, Lee, Maguire
Emeritus Faculty: Aho, Hunter, Pierson

Goal and Mission

The goal and mission of the master’s program are to prepare graduates for positions as sociological researchers in charitable non-governmental organizations, business, or government. This is accomplished by providing them with the theories, findings, and methods distinctive to sociology. Some graduates choose to pursue a sociology doctorate with the hope of college teaching, others go on to law school, still others into counseling or private consulting.

Objectives

1. Graduates will master literature in one substantive area of sociology.
2. Graduates will develop an understanding of sociological theories, related findings, research design, and statistics.
3. Graduates will further their professional careers by either continuing education at the doctoral level or finding employment in public service utilizing their advanced degree.

Master of Arts in Sociology

Admission Requirements

The student must apply to and meet all criteria for admission to the Graduate School. In addition to the general requirements of the Graduate School, the student must comply with the following departmental requirements:

- Students must submit GRE scores and score a minimum of the 40th percentile in one of the three sections of the GRE.
- Have a grade point average of 3.0 or higher (on a 4.0) for the last 60+ credits taken as an undergraduate or permission of the Graduate Director.
- Include a statement of interest and career goals.
- Three letters of recommendation must accompany the application.
- Submit a writing sample.

For full admission to the graduate program in Sociology, the student must have completed the following courses or their equivalent:

1. Introduction to Sociology,
2. Social Theory,
3. Social Statistics, and
4. Social Science Research Methods.

In cases of deficiencies, students may be granted waivers, alternative courses, or Classified with Performance Requirements (w/PR) admission at the discretion of the Sociology Graduate Director.

The Sociology electives may be selected from 5500- and 6600-level courses in Sociology or other graduate courses approved by the Sociology Graduate Director. If SOC 4408 Advanced Sociological Methods was taken as an undergraduate, 3 credit hours of electives will be substituted for SOC 5508 Statistical Analysis. If SOC 4402 Proseminar was taken as an undergraduate, the student is not required to take SOC 5502 at the graduate level.

Other requirements include the successful presentation and defense of a thesis proposal prior to the third semester in the program, and the completion of a thesis and successful oral defense of the thesis.

For more information, please consult the Sociology Graduate Student Handbook and Sociology Graduate Director.

Interdisciplinary Specialized Area in Criminology

For the specialized area in Criminology, students need to take the 5 courses (18 credits) required for the MA program in Sociology and take additional 15 credits from the courses listed below to fulfill the elective requirements. Other requirements include the successful presentation and defense of a thesis proposal prior to the third semester in the program and the completion of a thesis and successful oral defense of the thesis. The specialized area is an interdisciplinary curriculum shared between the Department of Political Science and the Department of Sociology, Social Work and Criminology. Other courses appropriate to the Criminology emphasis may be offered by both departments and can be taken by the student with the permission of the advisor.

Master of Social Work

MSW Mission and Goals

The mission of the Master of Social Work (MSW) program is to prepare students for advanced clinical social work practice that promotes human and social well-being and advances social justice. Graduates are expected to become culturally competent and effective practitioners with professional values, evidence-based knowledge, and skills relevant to their local and global communities.

Derived from the Program mission, the goals of the Master of Social Work Program are to prepare students:

1. To develop an identity that will incorporate the values, principles, and ethics of the social work profession
2. To develop practice skills with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities, applying evidence-based knowledge
3. To develop critical thinking skills based on scientific inquiry and research-informed practice
4. To work with diverse, vulnerable, oppressed, and disadvantaged populations locally and globally
5. To advance global human rights and social, economic, and environmental justice
6. To gain expertise in clinically focused practice with an emphasis on children and families and forensic social work

Students can be admitted to the MSW Program with Advanced Standing if they have earned a BSW from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited BSW program within the previous seven years and have substantial post-BSW social work practice experience. With Advanced Standing, students can complete the MSW degree in 36 credits. All other students must complete all 60 credits in order to earn the MSW degree.

The degree culminating experience is a 500 hour Field Practicum and a 1 credit Capstone project, which allows students to apply research to practice.

Students who are admitted to the program without a recent BSW degree complete the following required courses:
