Master of Education in Elementary Education

The 30-credit (minimum) non-thesis master’s degree in Elementary Education is a combination of pedagogy and content, designed for the elementary school teacher. This degree will permit the practicing teacher to acquire greater depth in STEM (or single subject mathematics, geology, physical science, or biology), ESL/TEALOL, foreign language, English/language arts, history/social science, Instructional Technology, or another Idaho SBOE-approved elementary certification or endorsement area.

1. The advanced elementary education professional, through the core curriculum and other course work, is expected to meet the core standards for advanced professionals.
2. The advanced elementary education professional is expected to meet Idaho Core Teacher Standards and National Board for Professional Teaching Standards Core Propositions.
3. The advanced elementary education professional is expected to extend her/his subject matter depth in STEM, (or single subject mathematics, geology, physical science, or biology), ESL/TEALOL, foreign language, English/language arts, history/social science, or another Idaho SBOE-approved elementary subject matter content certification or endorsement area.
4. The advanced elementary education professional is expected to utilize the knowledge of subject area concentration in specific applications and assessments within the educational methods curriculum.

Master of Education in Secondary Education

The 30-credit (minimum) non-thesis master's degree in Secondary Education is a combination of pedagogy and content, designed for the secondary school teacher. This degree will permit the practicing teacher to acquire greater depth in STEM, (or single subject mathematics, geology, physical science, or biology), ESL/TEALOL, foreign language, English/language arts, history/social science, Literacy, Instructional Technology, or another Idaho SBOE-approved secondary subject matter content certification or endorsement area.

1. The advanced secondary education professional, through the core curriculum and other course work, is expected to meet the core standards for advanced professionals.
2. The advanced secondary education professional is expected to meet Idaho Core Teacher Standards and National Board for Professional Teaching Standards Core Propositions.
3. The advanced secondary education professional is expected to extend her/his subject matter depth in STEM (or single subject mathematics, geology, physical science, or biology), ESL/TEALOL, foreign language, English/language arts, history/social science, Instructional Technology, or another Idaho SBOE-approved secondary subject matter content certification or endorsement area.
4. The advanced secondary education professional is expected to utilize the knowledge of subject area concentration in specific applications and assessments within the educational methods curriculum.

Master of Education in K-12 Education

Music Education 36 Credits

The Master of Education in Music Education is a degree program housed in the College of Education and presented in collaboration with the Department of Music. For admission into this program, apply first to the College of Education Department of Teaching and Educational Studies. The Master of Education in Music Education is designed to strengthen the student’s understanding, knowledge, and skills in three major areas — Core Professional Studies, Specialty Studies, and Integrative Field Research studies — as they relate to music education. The program is designed to meet the needs of music education specialists who work in the public school system (K-12) or who aspire to further graduate study and teaching in music education.

Master of Education in Special Education

1. The special educator will understand the field as an evolving and changing discipline.
2. The special educator will know and demonstrate respect for his/her students first as unique human beings and contributing members of the community.
3. The special educator will understand the appropriate use of various types of assessments.
4. The special educator will adapt general curriculum by using a variety of instructional strategies and positive behavior supports.
5. The special educator will collaborate with colleagues, families, and agencies to develop inclusive communities.

The Master of Education in Special Education is designed to strengthen the student’s understandings, knowledge, and skills in three major areas – Professional Studies, Specialty Studies, and Integrative Field Research studies – as they relate to special education.

Master of Education in Early Childhood Education

Family Studies

The goal of the Early Childhood Education Program is to prepare professionals who have the necessary knowledge, dispositions, and abilities to:

1. Enhance learning and development of young children, with and without disabilities, between the ages of birth and third grade.
2. Establish collaborative relationships with families and other professionals in ways that produce positive outcomes for young children.
3. View their own professional development as a lifelong endeavor.

Master of Education with Literacy Emphasis

1. The Literacy specialist understands the related nature of reading, writing, listening, speaking, and viewing and that literacy is a process of constructing meanings. These meanings begin with personal knowledge.
2. The literacy specialist understands the importance of building on strengths of individual learners rather than emphasizing needs.
3. The literacy specialist is able to support and expand student expression in speaking, writing, and creative art forms across subject matter areas.
4. The literacy specialist is able to conduct assessment that involves multiple indicators of student progress and develop an instructional plan based on these indicators.

The Master of Education with Literacy Emphasis is designed to strengthen the student’s understanding, knowledge, and skills in three major areas – Core Professional Studies, Specialty Studies, and Integrative Field Research Studies – as they relate to literacy education.

Master of Science in Deaf Education
The Master of Science in Deaf Education program has an outstanding history of identifying, educating, and placing highly qualified individuals in educational programs for Deaf and hard of hearing children and youth in Idaho and neighboring states. These educators have been instrumental in helping intermountain states expand the delivery of quality educational services to this school-age population in all educational settings. The Master of Science in Deaf Education is designed to strengthen the student’s understanding, knowledge, and skills in four areas – Core Professional Studies, Specialty Studies, Integrated Field Research Studies, and Electives – as they relate to the education of children and youth who are Deaf and hard of hearing. This program is in alignment with the College of Education’s other graduate programs in that it includes research components (i.e., Core Professional Studies and Integrated Field Research Studies), a teacher certification component (i.e., Specialty Studies), and a supporting area (i.e., Electives) that augment a student’s undergraduate training.

Master of Arts in Teaching
The Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) is a non-thesis program designed to strengthen the pedagogical knowledge and skills of candidates seeking to leverage an existing bachelor’s degree to become a K-12 teacher. This program consists of three options:

- Option one (30 credits) allows persons with a teaching certificate to pursue the Master of Arts degree without taking EDUC 6652: Field Practicum in Education (student teaching).
- Option two (33 credits) allows persons without a teaching certificate and who are hired on a Letter of Alternate Authorization from the Idaho State Department of Education to pursue initial teacher certification and a master's degree while working as an emergency hire. Option 2 requires three credit of EDUC 6652: Field Practicum in Education (student teaching).
- Option three (36 credits) allows persons without a teaching certificate and not working on a Letter of Alternate Authorization from the Idaho State Department of Education to pursue initial teacher certification and a master's degree. Option 3 requires six (6) credits of EDUC 6652: Field Practicum in Education (student teaching).

The program consists of two core that provide a framework for a master's degree in the College of Education and a series of emphasis courses designed to strengthen candidate pedagogical knowledge and skills. A capstone experience is also required.

The deadline for submission of applications is July 1. Applications will be reviewed and degree-seeking students will continue to be admitted until program capacity is reached.

Master of Science in Deaf Education

Admission Requirements

The student must apply to and meet all criteria for admission to the Graduate School. In addition, applicants for the Master of Science in Deaf Education degree must meet all college requirements for admission and retention.

Admission requirements for individuals applying to the Master of Science in Deaf Education:

- Bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited college or university in the United States or its equivalent from a school in another country.
- Submit three letters of recommendation.

In that the mission of the Deaf Education program is to prepare individuals to become certified teachers of the Deaf, preference is given to individuals who have an undergraduate elementary, secondary, or special education major and who have American Sign Language skills. However, individuals without this background should consider applying after consulting their respective state department of education for details regarding teacher of the Deaf certification/licensure.

General Requirements

Students completing a Master of Science in Deaf Education must complete a minimum of 33 semester credit hours. Students seeking Idaho certification in the area of their training must meet the Idaho State Board of Education requirements for certification/licensure. Students seeking certification in their area of training from another state must meet the requirements of that state.

Elective credits to total a minimum of 33 credits hours for the master’s degree must be taken from relevant graduate-level courses. Elective credits must be approved in advance by the student’s major advisor. In certain situations a student’s program of study might exceed 33 credits. The three most common situations are:

1. Applicants will be evaluated as to their teaching experience with Deaf/hard of hearing children:

Master of Education in Early Childhood Education

Admission Requirements

The candidate must apply to and meet all criteria for admission to the Graduate School. In addition, applicants for the Master of Education in Early Childhood Education must meet all college requirements for admission and retention.

General Requirements

The Master of Education in Early Childhood Education is designed to strengthen the student’s understanding, knowledge, and skills in three major areas – Core Professional Studies, Integrative Field Research Studies, and Specialty Studies – as they relate to Child and Family Studies.

- Early Childhood Education

Candidates enter the program after completion of the bachelor’s degree. All candidates completing a Master of Education in Early Childhood Education must complete a written comprehensive examination: a case study/project OR a case study/project/internship combination, OR a thesis, AND an oral examination.
a. those with three or more years of such teaching experience will be able to waive EDHH 6609 Teaching Internship in Deaf Education (3 credits), but will need to take added electives;
b. those who do not meet the three years teaching experience will need to take EDHH 6609 (3 credits).

2. Applicants who do not meet American Sign Language proficiency will need to complete appropriate coursework; verification can be established through various sign language quality assurance examinations (e.g., RID, NAD, or EIPA [3.5 or above] certification), or transcript verification.

3. Applicants who do not have appropriate coursework in communication sciences/disorders and audiology will be advised to take appropriate courses in order to meet the needs of Deaf and hard of hearing standards as identified in state certification/licensing documents. A thorough examination of applicant’s transcript will be completed to determine what coursework the student has completed and what coursework is needed to complete the Master of Science in Deaf Education, as well as state certification/licensure requirements to become a teacher of the Deaf/hard of hearing.
