Department Mission Statement

The principle mission of the Department of Counseling is to prepare quality counselors for various settings in Idaho and the nation. More specifically, we seek to prepare quality School Counselors for public schools in K-12 settings; Clinical Mental Health Counselors and Marriage, Couple, and Family Counselors for community agencies and other mental health settings; and Student Affairs Counselors for working in college settings such as advising, residence halls, and career centers.

We additionally prepare doctoral level counselor educators and supervisors to work primarily in institutions of higher learning as faculty members in counselor education programs. We believe that it is also our mission to:

1. instill a strong sense of professional identity as counselor educators, supervisors, and researchers;
2. help students gain an understanding of the rich knowledge base in counselor education;
3. facilitate expertise in the skills of counseling;
4. aid students to become certified school counselors and/or licensed as professional counselors;
5. aid students/graduates in their initial job placement;
6. teach and perform research applicable to the practice of counselor education, supervision and counseling; and
7. aid students in understanding the diversity of views and cultures within our profession and the environment in which counselors practice.

The Department of Counseling also has a mission within the Kasiska Division of Health Sciences, College of Health Professions, which is to represent the mental health perspective within the Division and to consult with Division faculty and departments in encouraging a holistic perspective toward health care services.

Counselor Education

Graduate-level preparation for

1. counselors who seek employment in schools, universities, community mental health, and various other settings, and
2. college student affairs professionals.

Pre-Counseling and Pre-Student Affairs

Preparation should consist of a broad undergraduate course of study, including some work in psychology (learning and personality theory), sociology, and the communication skills. For those seeking positions in public elementary and secondary schools, state certification requirements should be considered.

Degree Programs

Degree programs offered by the department include Doctor of Philosophy, Educational Specialist, and Master of Counseling. Majors are available in Counselor Education and Counseling (Ph.D.); Counseling (Ed.S.); Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling (M.COUN.); Clinical Mental Health Counseling (M.COUN.); School Counseling (M.COUN.); and Student Affairs Counseling (M.COUN.).

Accreditation

The program for preparation of school counselors is credentialed by the State of Idaho.

The Counselor Education programs are approved by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) as follows: Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling (M.COUN.), Clinical Mental Health Counseling (M.COUN.), School Counseling (M.COUN.), Student Affairs Counseling (M.COUN.), and Counselor Education and Counseling (Ph.D.).

Progression in Clinical Track Classes - Master’s

Students who obtain a final grade of 2.7 (B-), or lower, in any clinical track class will be dismissed from the Department of Counseling. Students who withdraw from any clinical track class, without the prior approval of the department, will be dismissed from the program. Students can appeal their dismissal from the program through Departmental policy. The Counseling Department utilizes ISU's Appeal Policy (http://coursecat.isu.edu/graduate/generalinfoandpolicies/appealsanddismissals).

Departmental Dismissal Policies

Master’s Degree Retention and Dismissal Policy

Department of Counseling faculty are confident that each student admitted has the potential to be successful in graduate study. Success in course work, clinical practice, case presentations, comprehensive exams, oral exam, and enactment of the core dispositions are examples of a student's progress toward completing a degree in the Department of Counseling. However, admission into the counseling program does not guarantee success. Faculty expect students to fully engage in all aspects of the learning environment, showing openness to new experiences and risk taking necessary to develop as a person and professional counselor. The student’s Committee Chair plays an integral role in giving feedback to a student, thus providing opportunities for continued growth and development. Engagement in all aspects of the academic experiences developed by faculty in the Department exemplify professional competence and will increase the probability of successful completion of the program.

The Department of Counseling faculty members have a professional responsibility to serve as gatekeepers for the counseling profession. Counseling is a discipline that requires active and complex gatekeeping to protect the public welfare of our communities. In particular, gatekeeping refers to the responsibility of all counselors, counselor educators and student counselors, to intervene with counselor trainees, supervisees, professional colleagues, and supervisors who engage in behavior that could threaten the welfare of those receiving counseling services. This responsibility is mandated in the ethical standards of both the American Counseling Association (ACA) and the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC) by specifying that counselors must act to rectify the problematic condition through appropriate organizational and professional channels (ACA, 2014, Section F.5.; NBCC, 2005, Section A; McAdams & Foster, 2009).
Faculty, site supervisors, and doctoral students systematically discuss and evaluate students’ progress in the program. When impediments are identified, the student will be informed verbally and in writing. Impediments may include, but are not limited to, those offered by Frame and Stevens-Smith (1995):

1. inability to be open, flexible, positive, and cooperative
2. unwilling to accept and use feedback
3. unaware of impact on others
4. inability to deal with conflict and accept personal responsibility
5. inability to express feelings effectively and appropriately

The above examples are also found in the description of the Core Dispositions (see page 6 of the Student Handbook). If others (i.e., faculty, doctoral level supervisors, and site supervisors) have made similar observations, the Department Chairperson, Master’s Committee Chair, or other faculty will initiate a meeting with the student to discuss the apparent impediment to progress toward professional competence. Remedies and expected behavior changes will be discussed and outlined in written and verbal form.

Students will be given specific feedback on the nature of their impediment(s) as well as steps to remove the barrier(s) to progress when appropriate. In many instances a Professional Progression Plan (PPP) will be crafted to provide clear and specific ways the student can improve and continue to progress in the program. However, in more extreme cases (e.g., student poses a potential harm to self or others), faculty may choose to remove the student from the program without a PPP. In such cases, faculty will meet to discuss the student's failure to meet continuation standards (i.e., retention requirements) and a vote for dismissal will be entertained, guided by Graduate School policy.

The PPP represents a formal agreement between the Department and student who has been identified as having impediments to her/his progress as a counselor in training. Upon receipt of the PPP, the student will review the plan and provide her/his signature indicating an understanding of the requirements expected and as agreement to meet the requirements described within. A student who chooses not to sign the PPP should understand this will initiate a faculty meeting to discuss the student's failure to meet continuation standards, and a vote for dismissal will be entertained, guided by Graduate School policy. The Chairperson will inform the student of the appeals process.

Dismissal of a master’s student can be initiated in a variety of circumstances including, but not limited to, the following:

- Dismissal will occur when students violate the criteria established by the Graduate School (see Appeals and Dismissals (http://coursecat.isu.edu/graduate/generalinfoandpolicies/appealsanddismissals) in the Graduate Catalog).

Dismissal for failure to meet continuation standards related to academic and clinical competency will occur when a student:

1. earns a B- or below in COUN 6696 Prepracticum Counseling Techniques,
2. OR earns a B- or below in COUN 6621 Counseling Ethics,
3. OR six credits at or below 2.7 (B- or below),
4. OR below a 3.0 GPA (B),
5. OR when students earn less than 3.0 (B) in Practicum COUN 6697 or Internship COUN 6698.

In addition, students earning a 2.7 (B-) or below in clinical coursework must petition and gain approval from the graduate faculty in the department in order to continue in the program. The Department of Counseling follows the Appeal Process detailed in the Appeals and Dismissals (http://coursecat.isu.edu/graduate/generalinfoandpolicies/appealsanddismissals) section of the ISU Graduate Catalog.

Due to the nature of the program, students can be dismissed for professional competence concerns (i.e., unrelated to success with course assignments and grades). The American Counseling Association Code of Ethics (2014) requires counselor educators to provide remediation and/or dismissal from counseling programs when “they become aware of limitations that might impede performance” or when students are unable to demonstrate “they can provide competent counseling services to a range of diverse clients (6.f.b.).” As stated above, gatekeeping is an ethical mandate for counselor educators and designed to protect counselors in training and their current and future clients. Professional competence concerns that could lead to dismissal include, but are not limited to, impairment as described by Frame and Stevens-Smith (1995), academic dishonesty, ethical violations, lack of professional comportment, personal attitudes or value systems that conflict with effective counseling relationships, and personal concerns or psychopathology.

Academic Dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating and plagiarism. For the complete statement on academic dishonesty, please refer to the Academic Dishonesty (http://coursecat.isu.edu/graduate/generalinfoandpolicies/academicdishonesty) section of the ISU Graduate Catalog. Examples of ethical violations include, but are not limited to, the improper use of technology, failure to secure informed consent, and breach of confidentiality. Lack of professional comportment includes, but is not limited to, a lack of engagement in course requirements, issues within interpersonal relationships with peers, doctoral students and faculty, and inappropriate use of power with clients and other students. The faculty believe the enactment of the core dispositions embodies the values of the counseling profession and deficiencies in these areas could lead to dismissal. All students are encouraged to seek counseling and attend to their mental health. A student’s unwillingness to attend to intra- or inter-personal impediments contributing to impairment may lead to dismissal.

Dismissal Process Flow Chart

Process is continuous from start to graduation.
Doctor of Philosophy in Counselor Education and Counseling

The Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) is the highest university award given in recognition of completion of academic preparation for professional practice in counseling. Candidates are provided primarily with courses and practicum/internship experiences that will be instrumental in assisting them to function more effectively as professional counselor educators, as counseling practitioners, and as researchers.

Goals

The Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) in Counselor Education and Counseling is designed to prepare graduates for work in counselor education programs and doctoral level counselors for work in university counseling centers and other counseling sites. The major emphasis of this program is to prepare graduates for a career in university teaching, supervision, and research in counseling programs.

Counselor education and counseling students at Idaho State University will be:

1. Prepared to teach courses in counseling skills and counseling theories.
2. Prepared to supervise counselors and counseling students via individual/triadic, and group supervision across all counseling specialties (i.e., Clinical Mental Health Counseling; Marriage, Couple and Family Counseling; Student Affairs Counseling; and School Counseling).
3. Prepared to teach selected courses in one or more of the CACREP major areas.
4. Prepared to teach selected courses in the general CACREP common core.
5. Prepared to evaluate counselor education programs and counseling sites.
6. Knowledgeable of professional issues in the field of counselor education and profession of counseling.
7. Knowledgeable of ethical issues and practices in the field of counselor education and profession of counseling.
8. Experienced in developing and conducting qualitative and quantitative research.
9. Experienced in writing for professional publication.
10. Experienced in the advisement and mentorship of master’s level counseling students.
11. Knowledgeable and skilled in providing advanced clinical counseling skills.
12. Knowledgeable of the sociological manifestations of cultural diversity.

Admission Criteria

The student must apply to and meet all criteria for admission to the Graduate School. In addition, persons applying for admission to the doctoral program in Counselor Education and Counseling must meet the following criteria for selection. Applicants must have:

1. a master’s degree from a CACREP accredited program and be licensed as a counselor in Idaho or a state with comparable requirements OR a master’s degree in counseling and be a Nationally Certified Counselor and apply for an Idaho Counseling License upon admission to the doctoral program OR a master’s degree in counseling, one year of full time post-master’s degree counseling experience, graduate coursework curriculum requirements in all of the CACREP common core areas, and be a Nationally Certified Counselor or Idaho Licensed Counselor (persons who do not meet these requirements may be considered for admission as Classified (w/PR) while removing deficiencies in coursework and/or credentials);
2. taken the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or the Miller Analogies Test (MAT). Preference will be given to scale scores of 40 percentile or more;
3. a professional resume;
4. a one-page statement of post-doctoral career objectives;
5. submitted three (3) letters of recommendation;
6. completed the online Idaho State University Graduate School and Department of Counseling application; and
7. completed an on-campus interview by the Department of Counseling Admissions Committee.

The Admissions Committee will make the final decision regarding admission. This decision will be based on grade point and test score ranking, as well as on the committee’s impression of the applicant’s interpersonal style and compatibility of personality with the program’s training philosophy and his or her writing sample.

Selection Schedule for Doctoral Study

To apply to Graduate School and the Department of Counseling go to http://www.isu.edu/apply/ and click on Graduate Application. The application materials for the Ph.D. in Counselor Education and Counseling program must be submitted by December 15 to be considered for admission for the following academic year.

Selection of applicants for on-campus (ISU-Pocatello) interviews will be announced by early January. Notification of successful applicants for admission and alternates will be announced by approximately late January. A maximum of 5-6 students are admitted to the program each year (ISU-Pocatello, 4; ISU-Meridian, 2). Classes begin in the Fall semester of each year.

Master’s Degree Curriculum Review

Doctoral students who have earned their master’s degree from a 60 credit hour CACREP accredited program will be assumed to have entry level knowledge in core and major course areas. Those not graduating from a 60 credit hour CACREP accredited program will have their transcripts evaluated by a faculty committee to determine knowledge base deficiencies. A remediation plan of study will be developed and approved by the faculty as necessary. This review will take place prior to the beginning of the first semester. The transcript review will verify content of the following course comparable to the CACREP Core Areas in one of the four (4) counseling specializations.

Specialization Areas

Each doctoral student must complete at least one of the CACREP specializations. In Meridian, it could be challenging to meet the requirements of other specializations except Clinical Mental Health Counseling due to the limited availability of co-teaching opportunities. However, it is possible and has been done. If interested in doing so, please consult with your committee chair. Upon completion of the CACREP specialization requirements, the Program Requirements Verification form must be signed by the student's committee chair.

Each specialization requires competence in the following:

1. Skills and Practices
2. Supervision
3. Teaching
4. Knowledge

The committee chair, in conjunction with the program coordinator for the specialization and/or other faculty members, directs the student’s study to achieve this competence. Students will develop a portfolio demonstrating competence in the specialization area. Aside from obtaining licensure, students may tailor all their teaching experiences to uniquely fit their interests and professional goals. Plans are primarily negotiated with the committee chair and in some cases may require approval from the coordinator for that specialization area with major advisor and program (i.e., specialization) coordinator approval. Application for licensure as a LPC in Idaho should be submitted by beginning of the second year.

Admission to Candidacy
Each student demonstrating an adequate foundation for doctoral study, based upon the selection criteria and the master’s degree curriculum review, may apply for degree candidacy. The application for candidacy will include:

1. A course of study designed to remove entry level deficiencies as indicated by the master’s degree curriculum review;
2. An approved plan for completion of specialization areas in both core and major areas; and
3. An approved final program of study.

After receiving the written approval of the committee chair and a second graduate faculty committee member from the department, the application may then be submitted to the department for approval and the appointment of a third departmental committee member. The fourth committee member is non-departmental graduate faculty selected from the Division of Health Sciences or the university at large. The fifth committee member is the Graduate Faculty Representative (GFR).

Comprehensive Examination
The comprehensive examination is five days in length and is scheduled the first week of February.

1. Proof indicating submission of an article as first author is required prior to the commencement of the scheduled time to sit for comprehensive exam questions (Note: this submission may be the result of one of your class assignments, e.g., 7727, 7774, 8800). Your chosen submission will require review by your committee chair prior to submission to ensure article is fit for submission to a professional counseling journal of your choice. Additionally, proof indicating service on one empirical research project with a faculty must be provided prior to sitting for comprehensive exams. Failure to meet this deadline will disqualify the student from proceeding to the written portion of the examination. A delayed submission that prevents the completion of the comprehensive exams at the scheduled time may result in dismissal from the doctoral program.
2. 5 days, 2 Responses on the following topic areas:
   Day 1: CACREP Core areas.
   i. Day 1: CACREP Core areas.
   ii. Students will receive two to four prompts from which to select one for development into a response. Students will have Monday and Tuesday to complete a draft response.
   iii. Day 3: Specialty Area and Professional Issues.
   iv. Students will receive two to four prompts from which to select one for development into a response. Students will have Wednesday and Thursday to complete a draft response.
   v. Friday can be used to finalize your final drafts for submission to the faculty editorial board. Both responses must be submitted by 5:00 pm on Friday.
3. Format and protocol:
   i. Students shall create a list of references and may bring the corresponding archives to reference during the exam (only references from this list may be brought in via hardcopy or electronic storage device). Students cannot bring in textbooks or prior papers from doctoral coursework. There will be no access to the internet during this exam. Note: This requires a great deal of familiarity with and understanding of the literature in the areas covered.
   ii. Students shall have two submissions at the end of the comprehensive examination process. These submissions will be subject to a pass/fail grade by a faculty editorial board consisting of two randomly chosen faculty members other than the student’s committee chair.
   iii. Scoring will be based upon faculty evaluation and CACREP standards 6.B.4.h, 6.B.5.d, and 6.B.5.h.
   iv. At the end of Friday, students will turn in their responses, which will include a title, an abstract, correct APA formatting and reference citations, as well as a reference page. At the end of each day the developing response will be kept on a thumb drive in a secured area in the department.
   v. The faculty editorial board will review each submission and assess the responses as passing, remediation required, or failing. If an editorial board decision is split, a third faculty review will be selected to break the tie.
   vi. Grading of Questions:
      a. Pass – No further work required by student.
      b. Remediation Required – The student’s work is considered marginal and will require either a partial or complete written revision or an oral examination of the question. Student requiring remediation will be provided a timeline and expectations for the written revisions or oral exam process.
      c. Fail – If one or both exam questions are failed, the faculty will make a determination regarding a path forward in the program. At a minimum, this will delay your start on your dissertation prospectus. A formal remediation plan or dismissal from the program may result from failing the comprehensive exams.
   vii. If remediation is required, three faculty members (other than the student’s chair) will be assigned to review the student’s revisions or oral defense remediation.
   viii. Requirements for passing comprehensive exam:
      a. Have submitted a manuscript as first author prior to sitting for exam.
      b. Successful passing of both questions either through submission or oral exam.
      Students will receive results of the examination no later than 30 days from the Friday submission date.

Dissertation
After the student is admitted to degree candidacy, the dissertation proposal and preliminary research that the candidate and first two committee members have agreed upon will be presented to the complete five-member committee for recommendations and approval. Following the approval of the proposal and the completion of the comprehensive examination, the candidate is authorized to proceed with the dissertation in preparation for a final oral examination defense. The final defense is open to any member of the graduate faculty directing a request through the Dean of the Graduate School and the chair of the committee.

Residence
Following the bachelor's degree, each applicant must complete the equivalent of ten semesters of graduate study including the master's degree and three semesters of doctoral internship. At least six of the semesters must be at the doctoral level and four of these must be consecutive semesters (not including summer sessions)
The applicant must:

1. Hold a master’s degree in counseling from a CACREP accredited school counseling program or equivalent CACREP course work.
2. Apply to Graduate School and Department of Counseling by on-line application by specified application date.
3. Submit three (3) letters of recommendation; two (2) letters must be from Department of Counseling faculty who agree to serve on the graduate committee.
4. Have a minimum of two (2) years of work experience as a school counselor (post-master’s) and be currently employed as a certified school counselor.
5. Be recommended for admission by the Department of Counseling Admissions Committee.

Degree Requirements

The student must complete a minimum of 70 credit hours of course work (including the master’s degree) and a case study. All post-master’s degree course work must be approved in advance by Department of Counseling faculty. A minimum grade point average of 3.0 is required over all course work taken in the Ed.S. program. An oral examination is required that involves the presentation of a case study and demonstration of advanced counseling skills.

Major Requirements

At the post-master's degree Ed.S. level, all course work must be in Counseling-related areas and must include:

The case study presented during the oral examination reflects (both in written and video form) advanced counseling skills and theoretical orientation. It reflects therapeutic goals, client themes, and counseling techniques necessary to facilitate client growth.

Time Requirement

All requirements for the Ed.S. must be completed within a period of seven (7) years from the date of completion of the first post-master’s degree course to be applied toward the degree.

Master of Counseling (M.COUN)

Majors:

- Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling
- Clinical Mental Health Counseling
- School Counseling
- Student Affairs Counseling

Goals

The general objective of the Master of Counseling (M.COUN) degree is to prepare students to be professional counselors. The Department of Counseling faculty believe that the development of a strong professional identity, a rich knowledge base, and expertise in the skills of counseling are essential to functioning as a professional in each counseling setting.

The Master of Counseling degree is designed to be the strong foundation upon which graduates enter a lifetime career in the helping professions. This program prepares counselors to respond to the multitude of societal changes and to the ever-expanding counseling profession. In addition to knowledge and experience in the following eight common-core areas, graduates also have specialized knowledge and skills as identified in the objectives of the Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling, Clinical Mental Health Counseling, School Counseling, and Student Affairs Counseling Majors.
Curricular Objectives

1. Students will have knowledge of Human Growth and Development in order to understand the nature and needs of persons at all developmental levels and in multicultural contexts.
2. Students will have knowledge of Social and Cultural Foundations to be effective in a multicultural and diverse society.
3. Students will be knowledgeable and skillful in Counseling and Consultation processes.
4. Students will be knowledgeable about group development, dynamics, counseling theory, group counseling methods, and group work approaches.
5. Students will be knowledgeable and understand career development and related factors.
6. Students will understand and be knowledgeable about individual and group approaches to assessment and evaluation.
7. Students will be knowledgeable about various research methods, statistical analysis, needs assessment, and program evaluation.
8. Students will be knowledgeable about the profession of counseling including history, organizational structures, ethics, standards, and credentialing.

Student Professional Objectives:

In addition to the above curricular objectives, the Department of Counseling has program-wide objectives. These include:

1. School counseling students will obtain certification as school counselors.
2. Students in all majors (Clinical Mental Health Counseling, Marriage Couple and Family Counseling, School Counseling, and Student Affairs Counseling) will obtain the appropriate state licensure as professional counselors (i.e., LPC).

Admission Requirements

Admission into the counseling program is competitive. A preset number of students will be admitted, according to faculty resources. The Admissions Committee will make the final recommendation regarding admission based on grade point and test score rankings, as well as on the committee’s impression of the applicant’s interpersonal style and compatibility of personality with the program’s training philosophy, and on the student’s written statement.

The applicant must:

1. Have a bachelor’s degree from a college or university accredited in the United States, or its equivalent from a school in another country (must complete degree before onset of classes in the Fall semester in year of acceptance).
2. Meet the guidelines for admission set forth by the Graduate School and the Department of Counseling. Those individuals meeting both criteria will be invited for an interview. The minimum master's level standards are:
   a. GPA
   b. Standardized Test

   (last 60 credits)

   3.0 to 4.0 40th Percentile on at least one area of the GRE or 40th Percentile on the MAT

Below 2.499 No Admission

The method for calculating an admission GPA is based on the last 60± semester undergraduate credits (90 ± quarter credits).

3. Prospective students are expected to come to campus (Pocatello or Meridian) for an interview. Selected applicants will be interviewed by the Department of Counseling Admissions Committee as part of the admissions procedure. Ultimately, one's GPA and test scores qualify one to take part in the interview process.

4. Submit three (3) letters of recommendation from individuals who have knowledge of the applicant’s academic capabilities, work performance, professional potential, and character.
5. Apply to Graduate School and Department of Counseling by on-line application by specified application date.

Only applicants who have submitted all application materials on or before the application deadline will have their material reviewed by the Admissions Committee to determine status as a competitive, qualified applicant (incomplete, late, or inaccurate files/forms will not be reviewed). Due to the competition for limited seats in the Master of Counseling program, satisfactory completion of the entry level requirements does not guarantee acceptance.

Selected applicants will be interviewed by the Department of Counseling Admissions Committee as part of the admissions procedure. The Admissions Committee will make the final decision regarding admission. This decision will be based on grade point and test score rankings as well as the Committee’s impression of the applicant’s interpersonal style and compatibility of personality with the program’s training philosophy.

Selection Schedule

After August 15, apply to Graduate School and Department of Counseling by on-line application by specified application date.

ISU-Pocatello

Application review begins January 15, and continues until all seats are filled. Interviews are tentatively scheduled for early February. Notification of admission decisions will be announced approximately mid-February. A maximum of 20-25 students are admitted to the Master of Counseling program each year at ISU-Pocatello. Classes begin the fall semester of each year.

ISU-Meridian

Application review begins January 15 and continues until all seats are filled. Interviews are tentatively scheduled for mid-February. Notification of admission decisions will be announced approximately March 1. A maximum of 10-12 students are admitted to the Master of Counseling program each year at ISU-Meridian. Classes begin the fall semester of each year.

If the January 15 deadline has passed, please contact the Department of Counseling. A secondary admission process may be conducted.

Classified w/Performance Requirements Status

Students who meet the undergraduate grade point average of 3.0 or higher for all upper division undergraduate classes but have not received their scores for the GRE or MAT, or are registered to take one of these examinations at the next possible testing, may be admitted Classified (w/PR) status, and may be considered for openings not filled by Classified applicants in the Department of Counseling program.

Students must request a change of status from Classified (w/PR) status to Classified status upon completion of their first semester of graduate study. The change from Classified (w/PR) to Classified status must be approved by the Department of Counseling and the Dean of the Graduate School.

Unclassified Status
Our Department's Professional Development Workshops do, periodically, offer workshops lengthy enough to count as 1 or 2 class credits.

Approval of Master's Degree

Final Program of Study
A student who has been admitted to the Master of Counseling (M.COUN.) program may submit a final program of study following the completion of COUN 6621 Professional Orientation and Ethics, COUN 6627 Conceptualizing Counseling Theory, COUN 6696 Practicum Counseling Techniques and during the semester in which COUN 6697 Practicum in Counseling is being completed. The final program of study must include all course work required to complete the selected M.COUN. major and must be approved by two counseling faculty members who have graduate faculty status (one of whom will serve as committee chair). Prior to the semester of the proposed graduation, the final program of study must receive the approval of a majority of the Counseling graduate faculty.

General Requirements
For the Master of Counseling (M.COUN.) degree the student is required to complete the equivalent of at least four full semesters of resident graduate study beyond the bachelor's degree. For the Clinical Mental Health Counseling, Marriage, Couple, & Family Counseling, School Counseling, and Student Affairs Counseling majors, a minimum of 60 semester hours must be completed in the Core and Major Course Requirements.
