Academic Standing

Good Academic Standing

Students are considered to be in Good Academic Standing at Idaho State University when their cumulative Idaho State University GPA is a 2.0 or above.

Academic Warning and Academic Probation

Academic standing is calculated once at the end of the semester. At that time, undergraduate students whose cumulative Idaho State University GPA does not meet a minimum of 2.0 will be placed on Academic Warning. Students on Academic Warning are required to complete the Online Probation Workshop (http://isu.edu/advising/online-advising-sessions-) and are expected to meet with their academic advisor of record prior to registering for classes.

Students on Academic Warning will remain on Academic Warning as long as: 1) their semester GPA in subsequent semesters is at least a 2.0, and 2) their cumulative GPA remains below a 2.0. If students are on Academic Warning and their semester GPA in the next semester of record is below a 2.0, they will be placed on Academic Probation. Students on Academic Probation are required to complete the Online Probation Workshop (http://isu.edu/advising/online-advising-sessions-), and are expected to meet with their academic advisor of record prior to registering for classes. Students on Academic Probation who do not earn at least a 2.0 in their next semester of record will be dismissed from the university. For policies regarding readmission after academic dismissal see Petition Policies (http://coursecat.isu.edu/previouscatalogs/2018-19/undergraduate/academicinformation/petitionpolicies).

Students on Academic Warning or Academic Probation who attain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher are removed from warning or probation.
