Non-Degree Seeking Status

Each non-degree-seeking student admitted to Idaho State University will declare himself/herself as such by selecting the non-degree-seeking application for admission. Other students attend classes as non-degree students without being admitted to the university. In either case, the student may change his/her status to that of a degree-seeking student by complying with admissions criteria for degree-seeking students (detailed in the Undergraduate Admission (http://coursecat.isu.edu/previouscatalogs/2018-19/undergraduate/undergraduateadmission) section of this catalog). A maximum of 32 credits may be earned by non-degree-seeking students.
