

Russian (RUSS)

Courses

RUSS 1101 Elementary Russian I: 4 semester hours.

Intended to teach students basic communication skills and grammatical structures in Russian and to acquaint them with the culture of Russian speakers. Practice in the language laboratory is required. Partially satisfies Objective 4 of the General Education Requirements. D

RUSS 1102 Elementary Russian II: 4 semester hours.

Intended to teach students basic communication skills and grammatical structures in Russian and to acquaint them with the culture of Russian speakers. Practice in the language laboratory is required. PREREQ: RUSS 1101 or equivalent. Partially satisfies Objective 4 of the General Education Requirements. D

RUSS 2201 Intermediate Russian I: 4 semester hours.

Extensive review of grammatical structures and continued emphasis on developing students' communication skills in Russian. Contrastive study of culture as reflected in the Russian language. Practice in the language laboratory is required. PREREQ: RUSS 1102 or equivalent. Satisfies Objective 9 of the General Education Requirements. D

RUSS 2202 Intermediate Russian II: 4 semester hours.

Extensive review of grammatical structures and continued emphasis on developing students' communication skills in Russian. Contrastive study of culture as reflected in the Russian language. Practice in the language laboratory is required. PREREQ: RUSS 2201 or equivalent. Satisfies Objective 9 of the General Education Requirements. D