

Accelerated B.A. to M.A. in History

Undergraduate students at ISU may start the MA in History program after completing 90 undergraduate credits. Up to 12 credits taken at the graduate level may be counted towards completion of the undergraduate degree. Students may apply up to 12 credits of classes taken at the 55xx level to count as 44xx equivalents towards their BA degree at ISU. Interested students should contact the department directly.

In addition to the admission requirements for the MA program, applicants to this accelerated program must have completed HIST 2291 with a grade of B or better, all ISU General Education requirements, and at least 12 upper-division History credits by the time of entering the BA/MA program.
