Core Courses for Biology Graduate Programs

All students in the graduate programs in Biology and Microbiology will take the following courses:

Code	Title	Credits
BIOL 6690	Careers in Life Sciences (fall semester of first year)	1
BIOL 6691	Seminar (second semester for M.S. students; third semester for doctoral students)	1
BIOL 6605	Biometry (spring semester)	4

Financial Assistance

The Department of Biological Sciences provides support for graduate students through Fellowships, Research Assistantships, and Teaching Assistantships. All forms of support include a stipend, full tuition, and other benefits. To be fully considered for the next fall semester GTA appointment, an application should be received by the end of December. Visit the department website or contact the biology graduate programs' director for details about financial assistance options.

Department Mission

We are a community that advances understanding of the biological sciences through active discovery, learning, and engagement with society.

Goals of Biology Graduate Programs

Students successfully completing graduate programs in Biology will:

1. Be able to think critically and comprehend written and verbal communications regarding topics in the life sciences;
2. Attain specific skills appropriate for careers in the biological sciences and related industries; and
3. Attain employment in the biological sciences or related fields.

Admission Requirements for Biology Graduate Programs

In addition to ISU Graduate School admission requirements, general admission requirements for Biology graduate programs are:

- Availability of a suitable faculty advisor
- Competitive scores on the GRE General Test (verbal and quantitative scores above the 50th percentile)
