

Advising Resources

ISU is committed to providing advising resources for all students and at every stage of their college career.

Office of Academic Advising (<https://www.isu.edu/advising/>)

The Office of Academic Advising serves as the coordinator of general advising services and supports the ISU community of students, faculty, and staff advisors. Office of Academic Advising advisors are located in Pocatello and at the regional campus sites in Idaho Falls, Twin Falls, and Meridian.

College Advising Coordinators

Each ISU college has faculty and professional Advising Coordinators who manage the advising function in the college or division. Students are encouraged to stay in regular communication with their college advisor. Appointments are available here: <https://www.isu.edu/advising/appointments/>. (<https://www.isu.edu/advising/appointments/>)

Faculty Advisors

Each department has professors who serve as Faculty advisors. Students are assigned a Faculty advisor for their major or minor program of study.